OUR CUSTOMERS

We serve healthcare, tax, accounting, finance, legal, and compliance professionals worldwide.

Wolters Kluwer provides software solutions and services to our customers based on our expertise, deep domain knowledge, and a relentless focus on innovation.

We help professionals deliver deep impact when it matters most.

OUR EMPLOYEES

Our people help customers thrive in a world of constant change.

Wolters Kluwer employees contribute through cutting-edge thinking and continuous innovation, operating at the top of their respective fields.

We are proud to truly partner with our customers, working alongside them to help solve critical problems for their most decisive moments.

OUR INVESTORS

Our aim is to generate value for our shareholders by delivering sustainable returns in the form of a regular, reliable, and growing dividend, share repurchases, and long-term capital appreciation.

Wolters Kluwer shareholders and creditors provide the capital that finances our business.

OUR SOCIETY

As a company that provides essential information, software, and services, we make a difference in the communities in which we operate.

Wolters Kluwer is focused on the most critical areas impacting humanity, touching the lives of millions of people.

PURPOSE CONNECTS

Our purpose gives us a common goal, along with the energy and focus needed to make a deep impact.

We focus on some of the world's most critical areas – health, law, finance and regulation - touching the lives of millions of people.

By partnering with our customers and sharing a common purpose, we help make the world more sustainable and move society forward.

Wolters Kluwer has a clear purpose that brings our customers and us together. The deep impact of the work of all these professionals when it matters most helps make the world more sustainable and move society forward.

Nancy McKinstry, CEO

Clinical pathways aimed at helping caregivers deliver consistent, high-quality, and effective care can be difficult to develop and maintain. In addition, their adoption can pose a considerable challenge.

With the launch of UpToDate Advanced, clinicians can use dynamic, interactive algorithms to aid in patient-specific decision-making and reduce variations in care.

The current economic climate coupled with regulatory and compliance pressures have put strain on audit functions and budgets for tax and accounting professionals.

TeamMate is a global internal audit solution used by tax, accounting, and audit professionals in corporate and government audit organizations. The new cloud-based innovation TeamMate+ allows for greater mobility, flexibility, and collaboration.

OUR EXPERT SOLUTIONS

Wolters Kluwer offers products and services across four business areas, providing expert solutions to meet every challenge. For our full product offering, see our corporate website.
