

Maryjo Charbonnier
Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer
Wolters Kluwer

Maryjo Charbonnier, an American national, joined Wolters Kluwer per January 2015 as Senior VP, Chief Human Resources Officer.

Prior to her appointment at Wolters Kluwer, Ms. Charbonnier worked at Broadridge, most recently as its Chief Human Resources Officer since 2009. Broadridge, a US-based public company, is the leading provider of investor communications and technology-driven solutions for broker-dealers, banks, mutual funds and corporate issuers globally. The company employs 6,500 employees worldwide and had revenues amounting to $2.6 billion. Prior to that, she held various senior Human Resources roles for over thirteen years at PepsiCo Inc. in the US, Mexico and Canada.

Maryjo has extensive global HR experience, and has managed all areas of the HR function. While at Broadridge, she designed and delivered an HR strategy and processes that have resulted in increasing associate engagement and being a recognized employer of choice in key talent markets, including New York State's Best Employer list for seven years in a row; recognized by Gallup as one of 25 most engaged organizations in the world; six years on Canada's Great Place to Work list and one year on India's Great Place to Work List.

Maryjo Charbonnier earned her BA in Washington DC at Catholic University, and her MBA at the Cox School of Business of Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX.