INTRODUCTION

- 0.1 These By-Laws are established pursuant to article 24.9 of the Articles of Association and best practice provision 2.3.1 of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code.
- 0.2 These By-Laws are complementary to the provisions regarding the Supervisory Board and the Supervisory Board members as contained in applicable legislation and regulations, the Articles of Association and the rules pertaining to the relationship between Executive Board and Supervisory Board as contained in the By-Laws of the Executive Board (which have been approved by the Supervisory Board).
- 0.3 These By-Laws are posted on the Company's website.<sup>1</sup>
- 0.4 The meaning of certain capitalised or un-capitalised terms used in these By-Laws is set forth in the List of Definitions attached as Annex 1.

CHAPTER I COMPOSITION OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD; POSITIONS; COMMITTEES

Supervisory Board Profile, Size, Expertise and Independence; Diversity Policy

- 1.1 The Supervisory Board shall prepare a profile of its size and composition, taking account of the nature of the Company and its affiliated enterprise (the Supervisory Board Profile). The Supervisory Board Profile shall address:<sup>2</sup>
  - (a) the desired expertise and background of the Supervisory Board members;
  - (b) the desired diverse composition of the Supervisory Board as expressed in the diversity policy;
  - (c) the size of the Supervisory Board; and
  - (d) the independence of the Supervisory Board members.

The current Supervisory Board Profile can be found in Annex 2.

- 1.2 The Supervisory Board shall draw up a diversity policy with regard to the composition of the Supervisory Board that addresses the concrete targets relating to diversity and the diversity aspects relevant to the Company, such as nationality, age, gender and background of education and professional experience.<sup>3</sup>
- 1.3 The number of Supervisory Board members is determined by the Supervisory Board after consultation with the CEO, and has a minimum of 3 members in accordance with article 21.1 of the Articles of Association.
- 1.4 The Supervisory Board shall endeavour to ensure, within the limits of its powers, that it is at all times composed so that:

- (a) each Supervisory Board member has the specific expertise required to perform his duties within the framework of his role within the Supervisory Board Profile;<sup>4</sup>
- (b) each Supervisory Board member is capable of assessing the broad outline of the overall policy;<sup>5</sup>
- (c) the Supervisory Board as a whole matches the Supervisory Board Profile and that the composition of the Supervisory Board is such that the requisite expertise, background, competencies and independence are present, enabling the Supervisory Board to carry out its duties properly;<sup>6</sup>
- (d) at least one Supervisory Board member shall have competence in accounting and auditing;<sup>7</sup>
- (e) its members are able to act critically and independently of one another, the Executive Board and any particular interests involved; in order to safeguard this the Supervisory Board is composed so that:<sup>8</sup>
  - (i) any one of the criteria referred to in clause 1.5(a) to (e) inclusive are applicable to at most one Supervisory Board member;
  - (ii) for each shareholder, or group of affiliated shareholders who directly or indirectly hold more than ten percent of the shares in the Company, there is at most one Supervisory Board member who can be considered to be affiliated with or representing them as stipulated in clause 1.5(f) and (g); and
  - (iii) the total number of Supervisory Board members to whom the criteria referred to in clause 1.5 are applicable shall account for less than half of the total number of Supervisory Board members.
- (f) all Supervisory Board members observe the restrictions regarding the nature and number of their other positions as set forth in clause 21.

1.5 A Supervisory Board member is not independent if the following criteria of dependence apply to him. These criteria are that the Supervisory Board member concerned, his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree:<sup>9</sup>

- (a) has been an employee or member of the Executive Board of the Company or an affiliated company in the five years prior to their appointment as Supervisory Board member;
- (b) receives personal financial compensation from the Company, or an affiliated company, other than the compensation received for the work performed as a Supervisory Board member and in so far as this is not keeping with the ordinary business operations;
- (c) has had an important business relationship with the Company or an affiliated company in the year prior to the appointment;

- (d) is a member of the Executive Board of a company in which a member of the Executive Board is a supervisory board member;
- (e) has temporarily managed the Company during the previous twelve months due to vacant seats on the Executive Board, or because Executive Board members were unable to perform their duties;
- (f) has a shareholding in the Company of at least ten percent, taking into account the shareholding of natural persons or legal entities cooperating with him on the basis of an express or tacit, verbal or written agreement; or
- (g) is a member of the Executive Board or Supervisory Board, or a representative in some other way, of a legal entity which holds at least ten per cent of the shares in the Company's capital, unless such entity is a member of the same group as the Company.

2. (Re)Appointment; Term of Office; Resignation

- 2.1 The members of the Supervisory Board are appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 2.2 The Supervisory Board nominates one or more candidates for appointment, taking into account the diversity policy adopted by the Supervisory Board with regard to its composition<sup>10</sup>. Any nomination or recommendation by the Supervisory Board for appointment or reappointment of a Supervisory Board member must be in accordance with clause 0, including the Supervisory Board Profile. On reappointment, account must be taken of the candidate's past performance as a Supervisory Board member.<sup>11</sup>
- 2.3 A nomination or recommendation to the General Meeting of Shareholders to appoint a Supervisory Board member shall state the candidate's age, his profession, the amount and number of shares he holds in the Company's capital and the positions he holds or has held, insofar as these are relevant for the performance of the duties of a Supervisory Board member. Furthermore, the legal entities of whose supervisory boards he is also a member of must be listed; if those include legal entities which belong to the same group, reference to that group is sufficient. The recommendation or nomination for appointment or reappointment shall state the reasons on which it is based.<sup>12</sup>
- 2.4 A Supervisory Board member shall be appointed for a period of four years and may then be reappointed once for a period of four years. A Supervisory Board member may then subsequently be reappointed again for a period of two years, which appointment may be extended by at most two years. For a reappointment after an eight-year period, reasons must be provided in the report of the Supervisory Board. In any appointment or reappointment, the profile of the Supervisory Board should be observed.<sup>13</sup>
- 2.5 A Supervisory Board member nominated for appointment shall attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at which votes will be cast on his appointment.<sup>14</sup>
- 2.6 Supervisory Board members shall retire periodically in accordance with a rotation plan to be drawn up by the Supervisory Board in order to avoid, as far as possible, a situation in which many

Supervisory Board members retire at the same time.<sup>15</sup> The current rotation plan is attached as 0. The Supervisory Board may at any time amend the rotation plan. Amendments to the rotation plan, however, do not permit a sitting member of the Supervisory Board to remain in office for a longer period than appointed for, or allow that he be asked to retire before his term has expired.<sup>16</sup>

- 2.7 The Supervisory Board shall ensure that the Company has a sound plan in place for the succession of Supervisory Board members that is aimed at retaining the balance in the requisite expertise, experience, diversity and independence. Due regard must be given to the Supervisory Board Profile in drawing up that plan.<sup>17</sup>
- 2.8 A Supervisory Board member shall retire early in the event of unacceptable performance, structural incompatibility of interests, and in any other instances where deemed necessary by the Supervisory Board. In the event of early retirement of a member of the Executive Board or Supervisory Board, the company will issuing a press release mentioning the reasons for the departure.<sup>18</sup>
- 2.9 A Supervisory Board member who is temporarily charged with the management of the Company when seats on the Executive Board are vacant or Executive Board members are unable to fulfil their duties, shall resign from the Supervisory Board.<sup>19</sup>

3. Chairman and Vice-Chairman

- 3.1 The Supervisory Board shall elect a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman from among its members. The Chairman shall not be a former member of the Executive Board and shall be independent within the meaning of clause 1.5.<sup>20</sup>
- 3.2 The Vice-Chairman replaces, and assumes the powers and duties of, the Chairman in the latter's absence. The Vice-Chairman acts as a contact for the individual members of the Supervisory Board and the Executive Board on the performance of the Chairman.<sup>21</sup>
- 3.3 The Chairman shall act on behalf of the Supervisory Board as the main contact for the CEO, the Executive Board as a whole and for the shareholders.<sup>22</sup> The CEO and the Chairman shall meet on a regular basis. As a general rule, the Chairman presides over General Meetings of Shareholders. The Chairman is responsible for ensuring the proper conduct of business at meetings in order to promote a meaningful discussion.<sup>23</sup>
- 3.4 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 3.3, the Chairman in any case sees to it that:<sup>24</sup>
- (a) Supervisory Board members, when appointed, follow the introduction programme and, as needed, additional education or training programmes;<sup>25</sup>
  - (b) the Supervisory Board members receive all information necessary for the proper performance of their duties in a timely manner;

- (c) there is sufficient time for deliberation and decision-making by the Supervisory Board;
- (d) the Supervisory Board and the Committees function properly;
- (e) the functioning of Executive Board members and Supervisory Board members is assessed at least annually;
- (f) the Supervisory Board elects a Vice-Chairman;
- (g) the Supervisory Board has proper contact with the Executive Board;
- (h) the Executive Board performs activities in respect of culture;
- (i) the Supervisory Board recognises signs from the enterprise affiliated with the Company and ensures that any (suspicion of) material misconduct and irregularities are reported to the Supervisory Board without delay;
- (j) the General Meeting of Shareholders proceeds in an orderly and efficient manner;
- (k) effective communication with shareholders is assured; and
- (l) the Supervisory Board is involved closely, and at an early stage, in any merger or takeover processes.

3.5 In addition, the Chairman is primarily responsible for:

- (a) ensuring the proper discharge by the Supervisory Board of its duties;
- (b) determining the agenda of Supervisory Board meetings in consultation with the CEO and the Company Secretary and chairing such meetings;
- (c) consulting with external advisors appointed by the Supervisory Board;
- (d) addressing problems related to the performance of individual Supervisory Board members; and
- (e) addressing internal disputes and conflicts of interest concerning individual members of the Supervisory Board and the Executive Board and the possible resignation of such members as a result.

4. Company Secretary<sup>26</sup>

4.1 The Supervisory Board is assisted by the Company Secretary, who is appointed by the Executive Board, after approval by the Supervisory Board. The Company Secretary may be removed by the Executive Board after approval by the Supervisory Board.

4.2 All Supervisory Board members have access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary.

4.3 The Company Secretary sees to it that correct Supervisory Board procedures are followed and that the obligations of the Supervisory Board under the law, the Articles of Association and the by-laws are complied with. The Company Secretary shall support the Chairman in the organisation of the affairs of the Supervisory Board (information, agenda, reporting of meetings, evaluation, training programme, etc.). The Company Secretary is as such also the secretary of the Supervisory Board.

- 4.4 The Company Secretary may delegate his duties under these By-Laws, or parts thereof, to one (or more) deputy (or deputies) appointed by him in consultation with the CEO and the Chairman.
- 4.5 If the Company Secretary also undertakes work for the Executive Board and notes that the interests of the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board diverge, as a result of which it is unclear which interests the Company Secretary should represent, he shall report this to the Chairman.
- 4.6 The Company Secretary also performs activities for the Executive Board, as provided for in the By-Laws of the Executive Board.

5. Committees

- 5.1 The Supervisory Board may appoint standing and/or ad hoc Committees from among its members, which are charged with tasks specified by the Supervisory Board. The composition of any Committee is determined by the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board shall, in any event, establish an audit committee, a remuneration committee and a selection and appointment committee.<sup>27</sup> The selection and appointment committee may be combined with the remuneration committee (the Selection and Remuneration Committee).
- 5.2 The Supervisory Board remains collectively responsible for decisions prepared by Committees from among its members.<sup>28</sup> The Supervisory Board may attribute powers to a Committee. A Committee may only exercise such powers as are explicitly attributed to it and may never exercise powers beyond those exercisable by the Supervisory Board as a whole. The Supervisory Board may, partial or in full, revoke any power attributed to a Committee.
- 5.3 The Supervisory Board shall receive a report from each Committee of its deliberations and findings, after each Committee meeting. In these reports each Committee must inform the Supervisory Board in a clear and timely way of the manner in which it has used delegated authority and of any major development in the area of its responsibilities. In the Report of the Supervisory Board, an explanation will be provided on how the duties of the Committees were carried out in the financial year. In addition the Report of the Supervisory Board will stipulate the composition of the Committees, the number of Committee meetings, and the main items discussed at the meetings.<sup>29</sup> All Supervisory Board members have unrestricted access to all Committee records.
- 5.4 The Supervisory Board shall establish terms of reference for each Committee and may amend these at any time. The terms of reference shall indicate the role and responsibility of the Committee concerned, its composition and the manner in which it performs its duties.<sup>30</sup>
- 5.5 The Supervisory Board as a rule has no "delegated Supervisory Board member" (gedelegeerd commissaris). Under special circumstances, however, the Supervisory Board may resolve to appoint a "delegated Supervisory Board member", in which case best practice provision 2.3.8 of the Dutch Corporate Governance Code shall apply in full.

CHAPTER II DUTIES AND POWERS

6. General Duties and Powers; Relation with the Executive Board

- 6.1 The Supervisory Board supervises the manner in which the Executive Board implements the long-term value creation strategy. The Supervisory Board regularly discusses the strategy, the implementation of the strategy and the principal risks associated with it.<sup>31</sup>
- 6.2 The Supervisory Board is charged with the supervision of the Executive Board, the general course of affairs of the Company and the affiliated enterprise. The Supervisory Board assists the Executive Board with advice. The Supervisory Board stimulates a culture of openness and accountability within the Supervisory Board and between the Supervisory Board and Executive Board.<sup>32</sup> The responsibility for the proper performance of its duties is vested collectively in the Supervisory Board.
- 6.3 In performing its duties the Supervisory Board shall act in accordance with the interests of the Company and the affiliated enterprise, taking into consideration the interests of the stakeholders.<sup>33</sup>
- 6.4 The Supervisory Board members shall externally express concurring views with respect to important affairs, matters of principle and matters of general interest, without jeopardising the responsibilities of individual Supervisory Board members.
- 6.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 7.3 of these By-Laws and clause 10.4 of the By-Laws of the Executive Board, the Supervisory Board and its individual members each have responsibility for obtaining all information from the Executive Board, the internal audit function, the External Auditor and if established the (central) works council needed to enable them to carry out their duties properly as a supervisory body.<sup>34</sup>
- 6.6 Each member of the Supervisory Board has access to the books, records and offices of the Company in so far as required or as is useful for the proper performance of his duties. The Supervisory Board member shall exercise this right in consultation with the Chairman and the Company Secretary, save where the applicable Terms of Reference of a Committee dictate otherwise.
- 6.7 If the Supervisory Board considers it necessary, it may obtain information from officers and external advisers of the Company. The Company shall provide the necessary means to this end. The Supervisory Board may require that certain officers and external advisers attend its meetings.<sup>35</sup>

7. Duties regarding the Activities of the Executive Board

- 7.1 The supervision of the Executive Board by the Supervisory Board shall include inter alia:
- (a) the long-term value creation of the Company and its affiliated enterprise and weighing of the interests of stakeholders involved,<sup>36</sup>
  - (b) activities of the Executive Board regarding the creation of a culture aimed at long-term value creation of the Company and its affiliated enterprise,<sup>37</sup>

- (c) the internal audit function;<sup>38</sup>
- (d) the effectiveness of the internal risk management and control systems;<sup>39</sup>
- (e) the integrity and quality of the financial reporting;<sup>40</sup>
- (f) the information- and communication technology (ICT) systems of the Company and the managing of the risks associated with cybersecurity;<sup>41</sup>
- (g) the safeguarding of the Executive Board's expertise and responsibilities and process of providing information to the Supervisory Board;<sup>42</sup>
- (h) the establishment and maintenance of internal procedures which ensure that all relevant information is known to the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board in a timely fashion;<sup>43</sup>
- (i) the risks associated with the remuneration structure for employees of the Company and its affiliated enterprise<sup>44</sup>; and
- (j) the relation with the shareholders of the Company<sup>45</sup>, and the compliance with laws and regulations.

7.2 The resolutions of the Executive Board listed in Annex 3 are subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board.

7.3 The Executive Board shall provide the Supervisory Board with the following information in a timely manner:

- (a) a report with detailed information on, among other things, mergers and acquisitions, material investments, major organisational issues, regulatory developments and other relevant issues;
- (b) each quarter, a report with detailed information on the financial situation and development of the Company and its Subsidiaries; and
- (c) such information as the Supervisory Board deems necessary from time to time, which will be drafted in the format agreed upon from time to time between the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board.

8. Duties regarding the Members and the Performance of the Supervisory Board and Executive Board

8.1 The duties of the Supervisory Board regarding the members of the Executive Board specifically include:

discussed in a meeting of the Executive Board with the Supervisory Board within two months of the end of this period.

- 10.3 The Audit Committee shall report to the Supervisory Board on its deliberations and findings regarding the issues referred to in Article 5.3 of the Terms of Reference of the Audit Committee. The Supervisory Board will discuss these topics.<sup>60</sup>
- 10.4 The External Auditor shall in any event attend the part of the meeting of the Supervisory Board at which the report of the External Auditor with respect to the audit of the Financial Statements is discussed.<sup>61</sup> The Supervisory Board shall be permitted to examine the most important points of discussion arising between the External Auditor and the Executive Board based on the draft management letter or the draft audit report.<sup>62</sup>
- 10.5 The line of contact between the Supervisory Board and the External Auditor is in principle through the chairman of the Audit Committee. The External Auditor shall inform the chairman of the Audit Committee without delay if, during the performance of his duties, he discovers or suspect misconduct or irregularities within the Company and its affiliated enterprise. If the actual (or suspected) misconduct or irregularity pertains to the functioning of an Executive Board member, employees can report this directly to the Chairman.<sup>63</sup>
- 10.6 The Supervisory Board sees to it that the recommendations made by the External Auditor are considered carefully by the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board and, to the extent accepted, that they are actually carried out by the Executive Board. This supervision may be delegated to the Audit Committee.

11. Duties regarding Nomination and Assessment of the External Auditor

- 11.1 The External Auditor shall be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders.<sup>64</sup> The Supervisory Board nominates a candidate for this appointment to the General Meeting of Shareholders and may recommend replacement of the External Auditor. The Supervisory Board sees to it that the intended appointment will be notified to the AFM by the Company in accordance with the relevant provisions of law.<sup>65</sup>
- 11.2 The Supervisory Board gives the External Auditor a general idea of the content of the reports relating to his functioning.<sup>66</sup> The Audit Committee shall report annually to the Supervisory Board on the functioning of, and the developments in, the relationship with the External Auditor. The Audit Committee shall advise the Supervisory Board regarding the nomination with respect to the External Auditor's appointment or reappointment or dismissal and shall prepare the selection of the External Auditor. The Audit Committee gives due consideration to the Executive Board observations. The Supervisory Board shall take this into account when deciding its nomination to the General Meeting of Shareholders for the appointment of an External Auditor.<sup>67</sup>
- 11.3 The main conclusions of the Supervisory Board regarding the External Auditor's nomination and the outcomes of the External Auditor selection process shall be communicated to the General Meeting of Shareholders.<sup>68</sup> If the Supervisory Board does not accept the Audit Committee's advice concerning the External Auditor's appointment, the reasons for this decision must be stated in the proposal to the General Meeting of Shareholders.<sup>69</sup>

11.4 The Supervisory Board resolves, on a proposal submitted by the Audit Committee, on the External Auditor's engagement to audit the financial statements.<sup>70</sup> By way of implementation of the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or as the case may be of the Supervisory Board or Executive Board<sup>71</sup>, to appoint the External Auditor, the Supervisory Board and/or the Executive Board with the approval of the Supervisory Board, will on behalf of the Company enter into an agreement to that effect with the External Auditor.

12. Remuneration of Executive Board Members

12.1 The Supervisory Board shall be responsible for formulating the remuneration policy of the Executive Board on a proposal by the Selection and Remuneration Committee<sup>72</sup>, and its implementation. The remuneration policy, including severance payment, shall be clear and understandable, shall focus on long-term value creation for the Company and its affiliated enterprise and take into account the internal pay ratios within the enterprise. The remuneration policy shall not encourage Executive Board members to act in their own interest, nor to take risks that are not in line with the strategy formulated and the risk appetite that has been established.<sup>73</sup>

12.2 The Supervisory Board shall determine the remuneration of the individual Executive Board members on a proposal by the Remuneration Committee, within the scope of the remuneration policy adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders.<sup>74</sup>

12.3 The Selection and Remuneration Committee shall annually on behalf of the Supervisory Board prepare a Remuneration Report, in which the Supervisory Board renders account of the implementation of the remuneration policy in a transparent manner. The report will be published on the company's website.<sup>75</sup> This report shall also contain the information as mentioned in Annex 5.<sup>76</sup>

12.4 The Supervisory Board shall have the power to adjust upwards or downwards the value of a variable remuneration component conditionally awarded in a particular financial year if payment thereof is unacceptable according to standards of reasonableness and fairness.<sup>77</sup>

12.5 The Supervisory Board shall have the power to claim back from the Executive Board member the variable remuneration component in part or in whole, in so far as payments were made on the basis of inaccurate information about the realisation of targets, or circumstances that such remuneration was made conditional to, that underlie the variable remuneration (claw back clause).<sup>78</sup>

12.6 The main features of the contract of an Executive Board member with the Company shall, after its conclusion, be published on the Company's website at the latest at the date of the notice convening

13. Relation with the Shareholders

- 13.1 Where appropriate, the Supervisory Board shall supervise that all shareholders and other parties in the financial markets will be provided with equal and simultaneous information about matters that may influence the share price.<sup>80</sup>
- 13.2 The Executive Board and the Supervisory Board shall ensure that the General Meeting of Shareholders is adequately provided with information.<sup>81</sup> The Executive Board and the Supervisory Board shall endeavour to procure that the General Meeting of Shareholders is provided with all requested information in time, unless this would be contrary to an overriding interest of the Company. If the Executive Board or the Supervisory Board invokes an overriding interest, it must give reasons.<sup>82</sup>
- 13.3 A proposal for approval or authorisation by the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be explained in writing. The Executive Board and the Supervisory Board shall in this explanation state all the facts and circumstances that are relevant for the approval or authorisation to be granted. The explanation to the agenda shall be posted on the Company's website.<sup>83</sup>
- 13.4 The Executive Board and the Supervisory Board ensure that each substantial change in the corporate governance structure of the Company and in the compliance with the Dutch Corporate Governance Code will be dealt with as separate agenda items.<sup>84</sup>
- 13.5 When a takeover bid for shares in the Company is being prepared, in the event of a private bid for a business unit or a participating interest, where the value of the bid exceeds the threshold referred to in Section 2:107a(1)(c) of the Dutch Civil Code, and/or in the event of other substantial changes in the structure of the organisation, the Executive Board shall ensure that the Supervisory Board is involved in the takeover process and/or the change in structure closely and in a timely fashion.<sup>85</sup>
- 13.6 If a takeover bid has been announced or made for shares in the Company and the Executive Board receives a request from a third competing bidder for information regarding the Company, the Executive Board shall discuss such request without delay with the Supervisory Board.<sup>86</sup>
- 13.7 The Supervisory Board sees to it that the responsible partner (certifying auditor) of the firm of the External Auditor is present at the General Meeting of Shareholders and that he can address the meeting. The External Auditor may be questioned by the General Meeting of Shareholders in relation to his report on the fairness of the financial statements.<sup>87</sup>
- 13.8 The General Meetings of Shareholders are presided over by the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman. The Supervisory Board may designate someone else to preside over the meeting.

- 13.9 The Supervisory Board shall endeavour that minutes on the proceedings of the General Meeting of Shareholders are made available to the shareholders of the Company by publication on the Company's website no later than three months after the end of the meeting, following which the shareholders have another three months in which to respond to the report. The report is then adopted in the manner provided for in the Articles of Association,<sup>88</sup> by the chairman and the secretary of the meeting. The provisions of this clause 13.9 may be disregarded if a notarial deed is drawn up of the minutes of the proceedings. After adoption the report (or the minutes as laid down in a notarial deed of proceedings) is posted as soon as possible on the Company's website. Also, results of the voting in resolutions adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders are posted on the Company's website as soon as possible after the meeting, where they are accessible for at least one year.<sup>89</sup>
- 13.10 A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders may be disclosed externally through a statement from the Chairman or the Company Secretary.

CHAPTER III

SUPERVISORY BOARD MEETINGS; DECISION-MAKING

14. Frequency, Notice, Agenda and Venue of Meetings

- 14.1 The Supervisory Board shall meet as often as deemed necessary for the proper functioning of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board shall meet at least six times a year. Meetings shall be scheduled annually as much as possible in advance. The Supervisory Board shall also meet earlier than scheduled if this is deemed necessary by the Chairman, two other members of the Supervisory Board, or the Executive Board.
- 14.2 Meetings of the Supervisory Board are in principle called by the Company Secretary, in consultation with the Chairman. Save in urgent cases to be determined by the Chairman the agenda for a meeting shall be sent to all Supervisory Board members at least five calendar days before the meeting. For each item on the agenda an explanation in writing shall be provided, where possible, and/or other related documentation will be attached. The Chairman shall in principle consult on the content of the agenda with the CEO and/or Company Secretary prior to convening the meeting.
- 14.3 Each Supervisory Board member, the CEO, and the Executive Board collectively, has the right to request that an item be placed on the agenda for a Supervisory Board meeting.
- 14.4 Supervisory Board meetings are generally held at the offices of the Company, but may also take place elsewhere. In addition, meetings of the Supervisory Board may be held by conference call, video conference or by any other means of communication, provided all participants can communicate with each other simultaneously.

15. Attendance of and Admittance to Meetings

- 15.1 The Executive Board shall be requested to attend as many of the Supervisory Board meetings as possible, to the extent the Supervisory Board does not indicate that it wishes to meet (for part of the meeting) in the absence of the Executive Board.

- 15.2 A Supervisory Board member may be represented at Supervisory Board meetings by another Supervisory Board member holding a proxy in writing. The existence of such authorisation must be proved satisfactorily to the chairman of the meeting.
- 15.3 Supervisory Board Members should attend the Supervisory Board meetings and the meetings of the committees of which they are part. If a Supervisory Board member is frequently absent from Supervisory Board meetings he shall be held to account on this by the Chairman. The Supervisory Board Report should state the absenteeism rate from supervisory board and committee meetings of each supervisory board member.<sup>90</sup>
- 16. Chairman of the Meeting; Reports
- 16.1 Supervisory Board meetings are presided over by the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman. If both are absent, one of the other Supervisory Board members, designated by a majority of votes cast by the Supervisory Board members present at the meeting, shall preside.
- 16.2 The Company Secretary or any other person designated for such purpose by the chairman of the meeting shall draw up a report on the proceedings at the meeting. The report shall provide insight into the decision-making process at the meeting. The report shall be adopted by the Supervisory Board at the same meeting, or the next meeting.
- 17. Decision-making within the Supervisory Board
- 17.1 The Supervisory Board members shall endeavour to achieve that resolutions are, as much as possible, adopted unanimously.
- 17.2 Each Supervisory Board member has the right to cast one vote. The formal procedure for voting and decision-making during Supervisory Board meetings is set out in article 24 of the articles of association.
- 17.3 A resolution adopted by the Supervisory Board may be evidenced outside the Company through a statement from the Chairman or the Company Secretary.

CHAPTER IV OTHER PROVISIONS

- 18. Conflicts of Interests of Supervisory Board Members
- 18.1 A Supervisory Board member is alert to conflicts of interest and shall in any case not:
- (a) enter into competition with the Company;
  - (b) demand or accept (substantial) gifts from the Company for himself or for his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree;
  - (c) provide unjustified advantages to third parties to the detriment of the Company; or

- (d) take advantage of business opportunities to which the Company is entitled for himself or for his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree.<sup>91</sup>

18.2 A conflict of interest may exist if the Company intends to enter into a transaction with a legal entity:

- (a) in which a member of the Supervisory Board personally has a material financial interest, or
- (b) which has a member of the Executive board or the supervisory board who has a relationship under family law<sup>92</sup> with a Supervisory Board member.<sup>93</sup>

18.3 A Supervisory Board member shall without delay report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest in a transaction that is of material significance to the Company and/or to him as a member of the Supervisory Board to the Chairman and shall provide all relevant information, including information concerning his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall without delay report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest that he has to the Vice-Chairman. The Supervisory Board member concerned shall not take part in the assessment by the Supervisory Board of whether a conflict of interest exists.<sup>94</sup>

18.4 A Supervisory Board member shall not take part in any deliberation and decision-making that involves a subject or transaction in relation to which he has a conflict of interest with the Company.<sup>95</sup>

18.5 A Supervisory Board member who in connection with a (potential) conflict of interests does not exercise the duties and powers that he would otherwise have as a Supervisory Board member, will insofar be regarded as a Supervisory Board member who is unable to perform his duties (belet).

18.6 All transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with Supervisory Board members shall be agreed on terms that are customary in the market. Decisions to enter into transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with Supervisory Board members that are of material significance to the Company and/or to the relevant Supervisory Board members require the approval of the Supervisory Board.<sup>96</sup>

18.7 The Supervisory Board is responsible for the decision-making on dealing with conflicts of interest regarding Executive Board members, Supervisory Board members and majority shareholders in relation to the Company.<sup>97</sup>

19. Remuneration of Supervisory Board Members

19.1 The remuneration of the Supervisory Board members is determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders and should reflect the time spent and the responsibilities of the Supervisory Board Members. The Supervisory Board shall from time to time submit clear and understandable proposals on its remuneration to the General Meeting of Shareholders.<sup>98</sup> If a Supervisory Board member is required to charge VAT on his fees, this will be paid by the Company.

19.2 The remuneration of a Supervisory Board member may not depend on the results of the Company.<sup>99</sup> Remuneration for Supervisory Board members should reflect the time spent and responsibilities of their role. A Supervisory Board member may not be awarded remuneration in the form of shares and/or rights to shares in the Company's capital.<sup>100</sup>

19.3 The Company and its Subsidiaries do not grant personal loans, guarantees or the like to Supervisory Board members.<sup>101</sup>

20. Introduction Programme, Ongoing Training and Education

20.1 All Supervisory Board members shall follow a formal introduction programme geared to their role that covers general financial, social and legal affairs, financial reporting by the Company, any specific aspects unique to the Company and its business activities, the culture and the relationship with the (central) Works Council and the responsibilities of a Supervisory Board member.<sup>102</sup>

20.2 The Supervisory Board shall conduct an annual review to identify any aspects with regard to which the Supervisory Board members require further training or education during their term of office.<sup>103</sup>

20.3 The introduction course, training and education shall be facilitated and paid for by the Company.

21. Other Positions

21.1 A Supervisory Board member shall report any other position he may have to the Supervisory Board in advance. The additional positions will be discussed at least annually at a meeting of the Supervisory Board.<sup>104</sup>

21.2 A member of the Supervisory Board will hold no more than five supervisory memberships of boards of Dutch large companies or large foundations with a chairmanship counted twice.<sup>105</sup>

21.3 Supervisory Board members must inform the Chairman and the Company Secretary of their other positions which may be of importance to the Company or the performance of their duties before accepting such positions. If the Chairman determines that there is a risk of a conflict of interest, the matter shall be discussed by the Supervisory Board in accordance with clause 0. If such conflict concerns the Chairman, he will inform the Vice-Chairman who then carries out the task of the Chairman as referred to in the previous sentence. The Company Secretary shall keep a list of the outside positions concerned of each Supervisory Board member.

22. Holding and Trading Securities

22.1 Any shareholding in the Company by Supervisory Board members is for the purpose of long-term investment.<sup>106</sup>

22.2 Supervisory Board members are bound to the Wolters Kluwer Insider Dealing Policy, as may be amended from time to time.

23. Confidentiality

No Supervisory Board member shall, during his membership of the Supervisory Board or afterwards, disclose in any way whatsoever to anyone whomsoever any information of a confidential nature regarding the business of the Company and/or any companies in which it holds a stake, that came to his knowledge in the capacity of his work for the Company and any companies in which it holds a stake and which he knows or should know to be of a confidential nature, unless required by law. A Supervisory Board member is allowed to disclose the above information to Executive Board members and Supervisory Board members as well as to staff members of the Company and companies in which the Company holds a stake who, in view of their activities for the Company and companies in which the Company holds a stake, should be informed of the information concerned. A Supervisory Board member shall not in any way whatsoever utilise the information referred to above for his personal benefit.

24. Miscellaneous

- 24.1 Acceptance by Supervisory Board members. Anyone who is appointed as a Supervisory Board member must, upon assuming office, declare in writing to the Company that he accepts and agrees to the contents of these By-Laws and pledge to the Company that he will comply with the provisions of these By-Laws. These By-laws are also applicable to anyone who is designated as a substitute member for a Supervisory Board member in absence or prevented from acting.
- 24.2 Occasional non-compliance. Subject to applicable law and regulation, the Supervisory Board may occasionally decide at its sole discretion not to comply with these By-Laws.
- 24.3 Amendment. These By-Laws may be amended by the Supervisory Board at its sole discretion without prior notification. Prior to amendment of these By-Laws the Executive Board shall be consulted. The Supervisory Board will review and reassess the adequacy of these By-Lawsterms of reference annually. The Company Secretary may carry out this review on behalf of the Supervisory Board and is authorized to make non-material (technical) adjustments to the By-Laws (including the Annexes) of which he will inform the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.
- 24.4 Interpretation. In case of uncertainty or difference of opinion on how a provision of these By-Laws should be interpreted, the opinion of the Chairman shall be decisive.
- 24.5 Governing law and jurisdiction. These By-Laws are governed by the laws of the Netherlands. The courts of the Netherlands have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising from or in connection with these By-Laws (including any dispute regarding the existence, validity or termination of these rules).
- 24.6 Complementarity to Dutch law and Articles of Association. These By-Laws are complementary to the provisions governing the Supervisory Board as contained in Dutch law, other applicable Dutch, or EU regulations and the Articles of Association. Where these By-Laws are inconsistent with Dutch law, other applicable Dutch or EU rules and regulations or the Articles of Association, the latter shall prevail. Where these By-Laws are consistent with the Articles of Association but inconsistent with Dutch law or other applicable Dutch or EU rules and regulations, the latter shall prevail.
- 24.7 Partial invalidity. If one or more provisions of these By-Laws are or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. The Supervisory Board may replace the invalid provisions by provisions which are valid and the effect of which, given the contents and purpose of these By-Laws is, to the greatest extent possible, similar to that of the invalid provisions.
