Forward-looking Statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements. These statements may be identified by words such as “expect,” “should,” “could,” “shall,” and similar expressions. Wolters Kluwer cautions that such forward-looking statements are qualified by certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and events to differ materially from what is contemplated by the forward-looking statements. Factors which could cause actual results to differ from these forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, general economic conditions; conditions in the markets in which Wolters Kluwer is engaged; behavior of customers, suppliers, and competitors; technological developments; the implementation and execution of new ICT systems or outsourcing; and legal, tax, and regulatory rules affecting Wolters Kluwer’s businesses, as well as risks related to mergers, acquisitions, and divestments. In addition, financial risks such as currency movements, interest rate fluctuations, liquidity, and credit risks could influence future results. The foregoing list of factors should not be construed as exhaustive. Wolters Kluwer disclaims any intention or obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

    - 10% of ordinary shares have been repurchased (including shares already held)

1 Based on closing share price of November 6, 2007
Health Results

- Organic revenue growth accelerated to 4% for the quarter as expected from flat growth in the first half year.
- P&G Books and Clinical Solutions delivered double digit growth. Medical Research and Pharma Solutions continued good growth in Q3.
- Healthcare Analytics: Double digit growth in brand analytics and managed care product lines offset by previously noted price compression in targeting and compensation.
- Margins increased to 20% in the quarter from 18% in 2006; on track to achieve full-year margins in line with 2006 (15%).
- Industry trends point to a softness in pharma marketing spend expected to impact Q4 growth in advertising and promotion programs.
- Full-year organic revenue growth guidance of 1-2%.

CFS Results

- Organic growth of 4% in Q3 and 6% YTD.
- Organic growth of 5% at Corporate Legal Services, driven by strength in UCC Direct, CT Cosearch, CT TyMetrix and CT Summation product lines.
- Financial Services unit delivered positive organic growth despite challenges in the wholesale mortgage markets. Banking content and non-banking products continued to perform well.
- Margins increased to 30% in Q3 from 24% in 2006, due to revenue growth and operational improvements.
- Full-year organic revenue growth guidance of 5-7%.
TAL Results

- Organic revenue growth of 4% in Q3 and 3% YTD.
- Tax and Accounting delivered 4% organic growth in Q3, due to strength in core US business (5%) and Canada (6%). Australia made gains in software offset by softness in publishing and workflow solutions.
- Law & Business US delivered 5% organic growth for Q3 through a strong Legal education selling season and improved retention rates.
- Margins increased to 21% in Q3 from 18% in 2006 due to growth, an improved cost structure and contribution of Small Firm Services.
- Full-year organic revenue growth guidance of 4-6%.
