

Elizabeth Satin
Senior Vice President and head of Corporate Development and Mergers & Acquisitions North America
Wolters Kluwer

In 2009, Elizabeth Satin was appointed by Wolters Kluwer as Senior Vice President and head of Corporate Development and Mergers & Acquisitions North America.

Satin is a veteran media and information industry senior investment banker who has spent over 20 years in investment banking. As a Managing Director at Lehman Brothers, Ms. Satin was the lead banker on many industry-defining transactions in the media and information industry.

Satin holds an MBA with honors in Finance from the NYU Stern School of Business, and a Bachelor's degree in International Relations and Semiotics from Brown University.